THE CONFERENCES.

THE GENERAL CONFERENCE, our law-making body, which meets every four years, shall be composed of one clerical member for every forty-eight members of each Annual Conference, and an equal number of lay members. Of the lay members elected, one may be a local preacher. The clerical representatives shall be elected by clerical members of the Annual Conference, and the lay representatives by lay members.

THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE is composed of all the traveling preachers in full connection with it, and four lay representatives—one of whom may be a local preacher—from each presiding elder's district. The lay members are elected by the laymen of each District Conference. Such members must be twenty-five years of age, and they must have been members of the Church for six years.

THE DISTRICT CONFERENCE shall be composed of all the preachers, traveling and local, of the district, the recording stewards of the same, and of laymen, the number of whom, and manner of appointment, each Annual Conference may decide for itself. In compliance with this provision, the Holston Conference, in session at Abingdon, Va., in 1879, fixed the ratio at one delegate for every eighty laymen, to be elected by the Quarterly Conference of the several pastoral charges embraced in the said district; provided, that no charge shall be entitled to more than eight, nor denied a less number than four, delegates. The District Conference meets annually.

THE QUARTERLY CONFERENCE shall be composed of all the traveling and local preachers, including superannuated preachers residing within the circuit or station (whether without or within the limits of the Annual Conferences to which they belong), with the exhorters, stewards, trustees who are members of the Church, and class-leaders, of the respective circuits, stations, and missions, together with superintendents of Sunday-schools who are members of the Church, secretaries of Church Conferences, presidents of Senior Epworth Leagues, if eligible, and none others.

THE CHURCH CONFERENCE consists of all the members of a particular charge, or class, with resident members of the Annual Conference. It should meet once a month on stations, once a quarter on circuits.

Whereas, The Conference claimants of the Holston Conference have increased in number, and have pecuniary necessities which the Conference claimants' fund is never ample enough to meet, even to the procuring of the common necessities of life; and

Whereas, The Holston Conference Brotherhood, organized in this Conference, seeks to provide substantial pecuniary aid for the future widows and orphans of members of this Conference, thereby sharing with the church the responsibility of caring for that class of dependent persons; therefore

Resolved, That during the next Conference year, and in the first quarter thereof, we will bring the claims and merits of the Brotherhood before our respective congregations and will assist in the effort to raise the non-beneficiary membership of the order to the number of, at least, one thousand, thereby making it possible to provide a home for every homeless widow of those of our beloved ministerial brethren of the Brotherhood.

CONFERENCE REPORTS.

EDUCATION, No. 1.

Your Board of Education is weighted with a sense of great responsibility, due to the fact that our Church, in response to demands created by the progress of the times, is entering upon a new educational era, for which the Holston Conference is not prepared. Our four schools, Princeton Academy, Jonesville Academy, People's College, and Pryor Institute, located in the back valley of our territory, close up to the Flat Top and Cumberland ranges, are meeting local needs and giving good preparation to a few boys and girls who enter College. But these schools are controlled by local Boards, and are without any efficient supervision of this Conference. We need to plant not less than twelve more such schools in the middle and southeastern sections of our Conference, and to exercise careful supervision of the whole. Perhaps all such schools should be given some facilities for helping the struggling poor in securing an education, while in some localities primary schools distinctly missionary ought to be established.

The Educational Commission, provided for in our last Book of Discipline, has met and prescribed the minimum requirements for admission to College, and for the Baccalaureate Degree. After careful examination these requirements seem to us wise and essential, if our Church is to maintain respectable standing among the educational forces of the times. Our parent Board of Education, taking the standard thus erected, and classifying our schools as the Discipline directs, has put our Female Colleges—Centenary, Sullins, and Martha Washington, in their official list of Secondary Schools. This makes it impossible for either of these schools to confer the Baccalaureate Degree, and at the same time meet the approval of the highest educational authority in our Church. But they can continue in their present lines of work; giving diplomas under their respective seals in attestation of the completion of their courses of study. Your Board of Education is of opinion that this should be their policy, except that one year of breadth should be taken off of the Literary Course and added to its depth.

Emory and Henry, your only male college, and one to which the Church in Holston must look for the Collegiate education of her preachers, is put by the Parent Board among colleges of Class "C," which means that it does not conform its courses to those prescribed by the Commission, and cannot now be classified. We have carefully compared the courses in this institution with those prescribed by the Commission, and find there is much need of strengthening the work done in history, economics, physics, French and German, and need of adding instruction in biology and history of philosophy. To do this necessitates the creation of two chairs, and calls for an increase of income of at least two thousand ($2,000.00) dollars per annum, and an outlay of at least several hundred dollars for indispensable equipment. Encumbered as our College is by debt, this enlargement is at present impossible, but unless we are willing to go out of the work of collegiate education upon the soil of Holston and see our Church enter upon a period of decline, we must make it possible. Thirty-two thousand ($32,000.00) dollars will free Emory and Henry from all debt, and make productive nine thousand dollars of her endowment. Sixty thousand ($60,000.00) dollars additional will reconstruct her administration building, and give new, commodious and modern dormitory accommodations, and make sufficient its income from endowment and other sources to maintain the faculty deemed necessary for teaching the courses essential to a first grade Methodist College. When this is done, Emory and Henry can not only continue giving the best college training to our preachers and sons, but should open her doors to the graduates of our female colleges, and other young ladies able to enter upon studies of the junior and senior years.

It is manifest to your Board that our educational work needs to be thoroughly re-organized, and we believe that this Conference, under whose benevolent and disinterested auspices all of our schools are at least nominally conducted, owes it to the Kingdom of God, whose glory it is set to promote, to see them so re-organized as that not only the maximum of harmony, and the minimum of friction is secured, but that such a system is built up as enables each institution to help every other. To this end we ask that a committee of five practical educators, nominated by this Board, be appointed to confer with our Executive Committee touching all questions relating to such organization, and that they make joint report to this Board at their earliest convenience.

There are, however, a few practices, all too common with some of our schools, that we cannot forbear to mention, since we believe that they are so glaringly wrong that the bare mention here in a connection that implies severe censure, will result in their discontinuance. We mean publishing prices that no one is expected to pay; charging one man one price, and another man another price, for the same service, and cutting rates to take patronage from a competitor.

To us it seems our present greatest needs are money and enlightenment, and the opportunity of the century for getting and giving both is before us.

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY MOVEMENT HAS BEGUN.

Much has been done; most remains to be done. This Board has endeavored to stimulate and direct the movement throughout the past year. We began with a round of educational conferences held for the preachers in each District. Then followed circular letters giving suggestions to our pastors, and enclosing programme to be rendered in all their congregations. This was followed by private letters, printed articles, addresses, and sermons in many places. When District Conference came on, we secured a Friday morning session and the hours for morning and evening worship of that day; furnishing programme and speakers. It has been a year of plowing and sowing; sometimes amid discouragement and tears. Only a few patches of the broad field have been reaped, but the yield from these has been magnificent, aggregating about $30,000.00. In promoting the movement we have endeavored to put emphasis upon the Christian home; the local Christian Church, and the Christian school as representing the three classes of institutions that go to make up our system of Christian education, believing that our people must see the scope of the great work for which this movement stands, if we succeed in thoroughly enlisting them. In the course of final preparation for Conference, we have perhaps a little relaxed our efforts, but today we gird our loins afresh, and renew with ten-fold vigor, if possible, this great work. We cannot afford to fail; the weal of future ages is in our keeping; God is with us. We are already organized. A Divine Power began to build Methodism for just such work, sixty years before this century began. We cannot look, therefore, for any new organization or machinery to carry on this work.

Bishop Key has said: "This movement will demonstrate the value or want of value of the presiding elder as an officer in the Church." This Board has faith in the elder, and continues him in charge of his District and this movement in his District.

Bishop Galloway has said: "Upon the pastors rest most heavily the success of this movement. What they ordain will surely come to pass. If active and urgent their people will freely give. The preacher in our Methodism has the key to every situation; he is the determining factor in every equation, and the condition of every success or failure." On the pastors, therefore, we allow to remain the whole weight of responsibility for leadership in their charges. We have plans, however, for District and Circuit organization for the aid of the presiding elder and preacher in charge, to be made known hereafter. As a Board charged with special responsibility, we shall give what aid we can to each District and every charge.

We ask Bishop Wilson and this Conference to release Dr. W. S. Neighbors from all pastoral duties, and appoint him agent for the benefit of our Literary Institutions, and general manager of the Twentieth Century movement for one year.

We expect two of our college men, Drs. Sullins and Waterhouse, to put most of their time at our service. From this hour we hope to see this Conference move forward, keeping step and in solid column along the lines already determined. Erecting family altars; perfecting local Church organization and life; showing the relation of our schools and colleges to the development of the individual, and to the future progress and prosperity of the Kingdom; moving our people to offerings that shall worthily express their gratitude to God for past mercies, and their intelligent sympathy and hearty co-operation in this great work of the Twentieth Century.

SUPPLEMENT.

Your Board of Education, having had under consideration some of the business aspects of the Twentieth Century movement, report as follows:

We must have, to meet pressing indebtedness upon Emory and Henry College, $32,000; Martha Washington, $22,000, and Centenary College, $12,500. Total, $64,500. We further estimate that not less than $60,000 additional will be required to give Emory and Henry College the necessary equipment and endowment to enable her to meet the minimum requirements prescribed by the Educational Commission. These two amounts aggregate $124,500. Adding to this what is being raised and expended for Sullins College, we may expect the Twentieth Century offering to reach $150,000. It ought not to be less; for this is only an average of $2.67 per member. Counting $30,000 of this amount to be provided for, there remains $120,000 yet to be secured. If we are worthy of the position we occupy as leaders of God's Israel in Holston, we will reckon this achievement easily within the range of our possibilities. We present the following as a plan of campaign:

1. Let every member of this Conference make his minimum offering before the present session closes.
2. Let each pastor return to the presiding elder at each Quarterly Conference a list of names of all contributors to the Twentieth Century Fund, and the amount contributed by each during the quarter, and to see that such names and amounts be entered upon the Quarterly Conference record.
3. Let each presiding elder make careful record in a book to be provided by the Board, of such lists as are furnished by the pastors. Said books to be sent by him, when their object has been accomplished, to the president of Emory and Henry College for preservation.
4. Let the presiding elder in person and through the canvassing committees keep in constant touch with the work in every charge.

5. Let each pastor appoint as many helpers as may be necessary to effect a thorough canvass of the entire membership. We suggest that he begin with the poorest members in his charge, securing from them as a minimum offering one dollar each.

6. Let all amounts from one to five dollars be secured in cash, but on the installment plan if necessary; and let notes for larger amounts be made payable on or before January 1st, 1901.

7. Let all monies and notes secured be sent to Jas. S. Kennedy, Treasurer of the Board, at Emory, Va., who shall carefully list the same, giving credit to the appropriate charge, and send statement of progress all over the field for publication in the Conference organ.

8. The Executive Committee of this Board shall be charged with the general management of this campaign.

9. The District roll books must also contain pages for enrolling the names of adherents and friends who contribute to this fund.

Space will also be given for a record of sums contributed in memory of departed loved ones. And these books, when completed, shall be put in a glass case for permanent preservation at Emory and Henry College.

In conclusion the Board most earnestly recommends that the presiding bishop appoint Friday, 8th day of December next, as a day of fasting and prayer for God's blessing upon this great and momentous movement; that it be crowned with completed triumphant success; and that we write and publish in our organ, the Midland Methodist, a special address to the preachers and people of our Holston Conference.

The Board is gratified to learn that all our school reports show increased prosperity, and enlarged patronage. The Board refers the papers presented by Rev. Jas. A. Lyons and Mrs. E. E. Wiley to the Executive Committee to consider and act upon during the coming year, as they may deem wisest and best.

As a Conference we have reason to be greatly gratified that Vanderbilt University has by the action of the last General Conference become the property of the entire church. We earnestly recommend all our young preachers and candidates for the ministry to avail themselves, if possible, of a full course of instruction in the Biblical Department of Vanderbilt University. Let them open up correspondence with Dr. W. F. Tillett, Dean of the Faculty of Theology, who will gladly furnish all needed information.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals beg leave to submit the following:

The report of the Book Agents of the Publishing House shows a gain in assets for the year of more than forty thousand ($40,000) dollars, with a total in assets of $911,685.20. We rejoice in the very hopeful outlook for the branch Publishing House established during the year at Dallas, Texas, and commend the judgment of the Book Committee in launching this enterprise which promises so much for our church in the great Southwest. We rejoice at the continued improvement of our Sunday-school literature, and urge upon all our people a freer use thereof. The S. S. Magazine we especially commend, both for its editorial department and helps on the lesson, as one of the very best publications of its kind issued.

Our Methodist Review, Review of Missions, Woman's Missionary Advocate and Our Homes well represent and foster the respective interests which they were established to conserve, and are worthy of the heartiest support of the people. The reduced price of the Review of Missions puts this most excellent magazine within the reach of all, and we urge the importance of putting it into every nook and corner of our Zion.

The Epworth Era we regard as the peer of any paper published for Christian young people, and we hope the coming year will show the large increase in subscriptions which this paper so richly deserves.

There is no better publication than the Christian Advocate. The character and strength of its editorials are commanding the universal recognition of the superior ability of the man at its helm, while all of its departments are so excellently managed as to make it a family paper of the very highest class. We cannot say too much in its praise. We urge the importance of the most diligent and untiring effort on the part of our preachers to put this true advocate of our Christ's cause under the eye of every member of our church.

We are glad to report a growing subscription list for the Midland Methodist. This paper has given us efficient service during the year. Its work and spirit are worthy of high commendation. Its mechanical form is attractive and its make-up excellent. We note these things with pleasure, and hope for it opportunity for yet greater excellence. Emphasis falls to-day upon the demand for the conservation of our energies, the just concentration and disposal of our forces and the better maintenance of our enterprises; and there is a call upon us for a worthy and faithful consideration of this agency by which our church is served. The Midland Methodist in its present relation as conference organ is a creature and institution of the church, made so by competent and official action, and to its editorship a member of this Conference is and may be appointed by Episcopal authority. It is the sense, therefore, of this Conference that no member of this Conference can in good faith and loyalty to his Conference and Church, give aid, support, or endorsement to any paper, or independent enterprise, which seeks to supplant our Conference organ or which antagonizes it upon its own territory.

We recommend a continuation of our present plans for the furnishing to our Church a Conference paper, and recommend Rev. Eugene Blake, Rev. J. W. Perry and Brother Z. T. Godwin for appointment as the members, from Holston Conference, of the joint publishing committee for the Midland Methodist, and that Rev. J. A. Lyons be appointed editor-in-chief.

EUGENE BLAKE, Chairman.

BIBLE CAUSE.

Your committee appointed to consider the interest of the Bible Cause report as follows:

"It is a great basic principle of Protestant Christianity that the Word of God is the only and sufficient rule of faith and ethics." If this be true, then it follows that every human creature, to make the most of himself in this world, and to attain to the home of the good, needs the Bible. The open Bible has given the world Protestant Christianity and our Anglo-Saxon civilization. It is the great lever which lifts the individual to the highest plane of manhood and the nations to the most exalted height of civilization. It underlies all gospel evangelization. The American Bible Society seeks to sow down the world with the pure word of God. It publishes the Bible in about one hundred tongues, and circulates it in about four hundred languages and dialects. This work of translating, publishing and circulating the word of life costs much money. The last Bible Society year gave to the world about one million and a half copies of the Holy Scriptures. This work is the foundation of our work at home and abroad. No church can, nor does publish its own Bibles for Foreign Missionary work. The work of Missions and Bibles are one. They stand or fall together. If we would take the world for Christ, we must support the American Bible Society. It needs money and must have it, or be very much embarrassed in its work.

Last year the Society destroyed the office of District Superintendent and created the office of Field Agent. The Field Agent has his territory doubled and is relieved of organizing auxiliary societies, which was formerly done by the District Superintendent. These auxiliary societies are the only means of distributing the word of God under the new plan and if they are not kept alive by the pastors of the church they will die. It is a lamentable fact that many of our preachers do not present this great and vital cause to their people and no collection is reported as taken. The Districts raised as follows:

Radford District, $15.29; Tazewell, $1.00; Wytheville, $23.81; Abingdon, $34.43; Big Stone Gap, $22.90; Morristown, $86.50; Knoxville, $44.28; Cleveland, $13.18; Chattanooga, $70.45; Spring City, $6.00. Total, $313.87.

We reaffirm our confidence in the American Bible Society and, realizing the importance of the work to the kingdom of Christ, and the pressing need of the society, we offer for your adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1, That we pledge ourselves to do our utmost to organize or re-organize and keep in active operations Auxiliary Bible Societies wherever we may be; 2, that we recommend the appointment of the pastor of Morristown Station, Secretary and Treasurer of Bible cause for Holston Conference to assist Rev. George D. French, Field Agent, in his work, provided it does not interfere with his pastoral duties; that the pastors be requested, as far as practicable, to take up a collection in all our churches during the ensuing year, for the benefit of the American Bible Society.

E. S. BETTIS, Chairman.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.

We are able to report this year 637 schools, an increase over last year of 104; 4,708 officers and teachers, an increase of 188; 45,710 scholars, an increase of 2,359. These figures are most gratifying and show a growing interest in this great work.

We note with pleasure the increased interest in the observance of Children's Day. The Board very earnestly urge the importance of this work, and recommend that we as preachers see to it that the day is observed in all our churches. We deprecate the fact that in some cases the money has been turned aside to other uses aside from that directed by the General Conference. As so much depends on our early training we wish to urge further the great importance of organizing our schools into Missionary Societies. This work has grown and we note the increased interest with gladness. As to our literature we wish to commend it, as the very best, especially for Methodist Sunday-schools. We most heartily agree with the brother who recommended the Magazine as the best commentary on the Sunday-school lessons. Young People's Hymnal and Children's Praises are especially adapted to our work in the service of song. Your Board by motion decided to furnish "Children's Day" programs to all our schools making application for them, provided the whole collection be turned over to our Treasurer. Your Board respectfully recommend that B. A. Marks be substituted for J. T. Littleton; K. C. Atkins in place of J. W. Browning; M. J. Wysor for J. W. Robertson, as members of the Board. Our Treasurer reports as follows:

Eighty-nine charges have reported collections on Children's Day, seventy-eight reporting nothing. Some charges have reported the day observed and collections taken, but have sent in no funds to the treasurer.

Amount received from former treasurer, $265.77; amount raised this year, $430.50; total amount received, $696.27.

Disbursements—Expended for needy schools, $211.37; incidentals, $3.93; General Sunday-school Board of amount left over, $25.23; General Board of Education, $25.23. General Sunday-school Board of amount collected this year, $43.05; General Board of Education, $43.05 Balance in treasury, $344.41.

J. W. W. SHULER, Treasurer.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

With gratitude to the Great Head of the Church we acknowledge the wonderful awakening which His spirit has created in our Conference. We recognize in this forward movement an answer to prayer and the fruitfulness of intelligent effort divinely directed. We cannot commend in too high terms the faithful, persistent work of our presiding elders and pastors who, under God, have brought us far on the way towards meeting the obligations laid upon us by the church. Equally praiseworthy have been the efforts of our consecrated lay workers. We say unto all, the Lord Himself shall be your great reward.

To the Leaguers who originated what is known as the "Holston Plan" and who have rendered such valuable service in carrying it out, we say "God speed you in the coming years until every deficit shall be wiped out and the church's ability to pay shall be the measure of her gifts." What has been done since the inauguration of the Holston plan is an earnest of final victory. On assessment for foreign missions of $10,000, $8,271.33 has been paid—an increase over last year of $2,559.13; home mission assessment of $5,824.23 has been collected—an increase of $1,601.54 over last year. Of the total $17,000 assessed for home and foreign missions, $14,095.53 was paid, being an increase of $4,160.67 over last year. Adding to this the increase of $1,702 of last year over the previous year, we have $5,862.67 as a grand total of the increase in these collections since the inauguration of the Holston plan. Our thanks are due Dr. L. L. H.

Carlock, our Treasurer, for the efficient work he has done and for the excellent reports in the Midland Methodist.

While the missionary assessments have been so largely increased, we are rejoiced to know that the other benevolent collections have had a gratifying growth.

During the year now closing we have had under our care 34 mission fields, appropriating to them $3,900. Every draft has been honored with one hundred cents on the dollar, and we start in the coming year in better condition, financially, than at any previous period in the history of this Board.

For the incoming year the Board assumes the charge of 38 missions, appropriating to their relief $4,875. These pastoral charges are:

The Parent Board assesses against the Holston Conference $10,000. The amount is the same as that of the present year, and we, your Board, assess $7,000, making a total of $17,000. The following are the assessments for the different Districts:

The attention of presiding elders and pastors is called to the following duties as laid down in the Discipline:

1. Duties of presiding elders—(a) Preach on the subject of missions in each charge. (b) Conduct a missionary institute early in the year. (c) See that efficient and well defined plans are adopted for raising the missionary funds. (d) See that the preachers hold their mass meetings.

2. Duties of preachers in charge—(a) Hold mass meetings in every church. (b) Circulate missionary literature. (c) In every way educate and inspire his people concerning the salvation of the heathen. (d) Organize every Sunday-school into a missionary society.

Where, on account of the size of the District, it is difficult to secure the attendance of all the preachers, we recommend that two or more sub-district institutes be held. We believe that the proper use of literature, early collections and a contribution from every member will secure in full our missionary assessments for the coming year. We heartily recommend the Review of Missions and the programs prepared for rally day in our Sunday-schools. The report of the Parent Board can be had for 6c. postage. Every preacher should send for it. Leaflets can be had also for the postage by addressing Dr. W. R. Lambuth, Nashville, Tenn. We recommend that Rev. P. L. Cobb be appointed Conference Missionary Secretary, without salary, and we have appropriated $300 as an expense fund for his work.

P. L. Cobb, D. V. York, W. W. Hicks have been appointed a committee to present at our next meeting a report on our mission territory, with special reference to self-support and better methods for meeting the growing demands of our city and mountain work. We ask the co-operation of the Board of Education and the Woman's Home Mission Society in establishing schools for elementary instruction in our territory where such instruction is so vitally necessary.

TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance submit the following report: As members of the Holston Conference we occupy the same position of uncompromising hostility against the evil of strong drink. Our Church has been speaking out with emphasis, and working with greater effort to enlighten and save the people, and in a way to awaken more hope than heretofore for the final elimination of this dreadful curse. From data and information gathered, your committee are led to believe that the cause of temperance has made substantial progress the last year, within the limits of this Conference, and by efforts for municipal control, at least in some quarters, gallant fights have been made, and notable victories won, looking in the right direction, and in these battles members of this Church and Conference have stood in the front and thickest of the fight. Therefore be it resolved, that while we are hoping for many blessings and victories to crown our efforts in the opening century, let us pray and work that the final overthrow of the demon of strong drink may be added to the number.

E. A. SHUGART, Chairman.

"G "DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your Committee on District Conference Records report as follows: Only eight records were before the committee. All of them are in excellent condition except three. In the Radford District record a few words are omitted. In the Tazewell District record the spelling is defective. In the Big Stone Gap record the penmanship is imperfect. Otherwise they are neatly and well kept.

J. A. ELLISON, Chairman.

"H "SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your Committee on the Spiritual State of the Church are gratified to note the substantial progress made by our Church during the Conference year now ending; that souls have been born into the kingdom and that believers are going on to perfection. We rejoice that the Church seeks to prepare itself for the work of the oncoming century by asking its people for a "Thank Offering" for Christian education. We urge that it be made a "Thank Offering" indeed, and pray that the Holy Spirit may sanctify every dollar of it, and in return for the gift thereof may dwell with great blessing in every thankful heart.

We need throughout all our land a revival of Christian learning. We need to know more of God's word—more of God Himself in all His manifestations. Being taught of God, we then need to do all in the name of the blessed Master. Practical godliness and holy living will enable us not only to settle all controversies but will place within our hands the lamp for the proper guidance into light of the wandering and perishing sinner. The test of our spirituality is to be applied daily as we go forth, working with spiritual tools toward spiritual ends and for the glory of our God. We have tools enough, if we may learn of the Lord how best to use them. If we conquer we must rely solely upon Him. The work is the Lord's and we are all likewise His. If sinners are to be born, Zion must travail. If our spiritual mother is to be happy in this her earthly tabernacle, we must be obedient, careful, attentive, loving and prayerful children.

When the sinner shall see the Lord as He is there will be a home-coming. May the ministry and laity of our church for the coming year, seek, with all diligence, to show Him forth as He really is.

D. E. HAWK, Chairman.

"I "BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension submits the following report. The manifest interest in the work is hopeful. The collections in the aggregate exceed last year. Yet there are charges which report no collection for this purpose. While we rejoice in all zeal, which is not without knowledge, in the behalf of any claim, we urge that church extension be placed just where it belongs, with equal showing before the people, and that this very important and positively necessary claim receive its pro rata of collection at all places. The demands this year upon the Board for aid are unusually heavy. This indicates intense interest in church building and emphasizes the necessity of full collections for Church Extension. The claims upon us were for more than $3,000, whereas we had only $1,193.28 to allow. This amount is appropriated as follows:

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Your Epworth League Board begs leave to submit the following report: There are 143 Leagues in the Holston Conference, a gain of one as compared to last year, with a membership of 4,637, a loss of 42. We are glad to note the fact that some of the Districts are so thoroughly organized and doing such efficient work in the various departments, but regret to report that in other Districts there is not only no advance, but a decided retrograde movement as shown in the lessened number of organizations. We would call your attention to paragraph 248, page 103 of the Discipline, and earnestly request that the directions there given be followed out in the establishment of Leagues in all our congregations.

We most heartily commend the plan as adopted by the Holston Epworth League Conference at Cleveland, Tenn., looking to the co-operation of the local League with the pastor in raising missionary collections in full, with the understanding that this special work is not to be pushed to the detriment of the other benevolent collections. In this connection it is proper to say that the reports to his Conference, excepting a few isolated cases, show that the work for Missions by the League during the past year has stimulated the other collections.

We congratulate the League upon the success of the plan formulated therein, known as the "Holston plan," and now being adopted by so many of the Conferences of Southern Methodism, and while we do not give all the credit of the recent impetus as to Missions to the League, we do attribute it in a large degree to the zeal and fidelity of the young people wisely directed by the pastors.

It gives us much pleasure to note that the circulation of the Epworth Era is steadily growing, and that, under the management of its very efficient editor, Dr. H. M. DuBose, it so constantly improves in all things. It is well worthy of our patronage, and the Leaguers of Holston ought to rally to its support. To Dr. DuBose, our General Secretary, we pledge our heartiest support and co-operation.

It is most earnestly requested that all our preachers co-operate with Rev. T. C. Shuler, President of our League Conference, and with the District Vice-Presidents in the work committed to them.

We recommend the holding of a General League Conference for the Leagues of Southern Methodism at such time and place as may be deemed most suitable by those authorized to act in the premises.

Your Board has no way of determining the exact members of Junior Leagues in this Conference, but regrets to report there are but few. Let us not neglect this branch of the work. Your Board begs leave to present the following resolution:

Whereas, It being the pleasure of the Leaguers of Chattanooga, Tenn., that the proposed General League Conference for the Leagues of Southern Methodism meet in their midst, and

Whereas, Chattanooga being conveniently located, having exceptionally good railroad facilities and being amply able to care for and supply the requirements of such a meeting; therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this annual Conference that Dr. H. M. DuBose be requested to fix Chattanooga as the place for holding this first General League Conference for the Leagues of Southern Methodism, and that a copy of this resolution be furnished to Dr. DuBose by our secretary, Bro. J. A. Burrow.

MEMOIRS.

JOHN H. KENNEDY.

One year ago, who among us at Morristown appeared in more health and vigor than our brother, John H. Kennedy? His form was full, erect, symmetrical, his step elastic, and his countenance aglow with the light of buoyant life.

The earthly record runs thus: Born to Adams and Elizabeth Kennedy, near Morgantown, Tenn., August 16, 1848; converted at Toco, Monroe county, 1870; licensed to preach the gospel at Mount Moriah, Maryville Circuit, June 22, 1872; received on trial in the Holston Conference, M. E. Church, South, October 27, 1872; married Miss Frank Bryan, October 1, 1874; received into full connection October 18, 1874; died at Philadelphia, Tenn., December 8, 1898. His mother was a sister of Rev. John M. McTeer, who, twenty-five years ago, was a foremost leader in Holston Conference, and his father was of that large minority in East Tennessee who, during the war, adhered to the Union. The disordered times must have seriously interfered with his early education; but somewhere and somehow he obtained a fair start in letters, and is known to have been a student in Hiwassee College previous to his connection with the Conference. The two years of probation were spent as junior preacher on Dandridge Circuit under T. T. Salyer and J. S. W. Neel. For these worthy brethren he formed a warm, strong, and tender attachment.

Two great events marked the close of these two years: his marriage to the woman whose hands were mightier than all other mere human ones in girding him for the conflict and his reception into full connection with a body of men whom he believed to be nearest akin of any on earth to the very nobility of the skies. The class in which he was admitted numbered sixteen. Only eight are of the Conference now.

The appointment succeeding was a disappointment; yet, like the man that he was, he moved promptly into place. Adjustments followed; but material resources were exhausted, while leagues lay between him and his destination for the year. "I have not a dollar left," he said to his bride, and proposed that they tell it only to the all-hearing Ear. Relief came quickly, and from unexpected sources. His horse had been sold in preparation for serving the little station to which he was at first read out; hence we see him, with saddlebags thrown over his shoulder, carrying his new shoes and wearing his old ones for comfort, starting on a tramp of thirty miles to his first appointment, on Catawba Circuit. Bruised and blistered feet touch the compassion of a parishioner and move him to place a stalwart mule at his service, for which he thanks God and takes courage. How did he maintain himself and wife on just $120.15? Well, God has ravens, you know. Between the lines of the meagre record I read that a great battle was fought and won for missions. The circuit's contribution for the previous year was multiplied by ten—fifty instead of five.

After his reception into full connection, he served on circuits nineteen years, receiving for salary and traveling expenses an average of $424.62 per annum. Five more years were given to work on districts, for which he was paid an average of $852.95 each year. Only twice during the twenty-four years was the amount estimated for his support paid in full. The unpaid balances of the other twenty-two years aggregate $3,212.02. Our Book of Discipline wipes it all out; but who would insure that these deficits rise not up in the judgment to trouble some souls?

He was ever an able advocate and earnest worker in the cause of missions, rarely failing to report increased contributions from his people. He brought to the Conference of 1884 from the Lead Mines Circuit a contribution to the cause of missions excelled by but one and unequalled by any other pastoral charge of Holston. On the ten circuits served by him he raised for this cause the total sum of $2,271.61.

As presiding elder he served the Church with marked ability. Although the years spent on Big Stone Gap District were those of the greatest financial embarrassment and disaster the country had known, the record shows a most gratifying increase in the support of the ministry, benevolent collections, and membership. His last year of service in this relation, given to the Morristown District, was greatly embarrassed by serious sickness. Who knows what care and toil it cost our brother to make sure to his successor at Big Stone Gap the best district parsonage in the Conference? Who can tell the prayer and striving by which he saved to the Church Princeton Academy, while serving Princeton Circuit? The perfect record of these things is not and cannot be on earth.

Courage, candor, decision, aggressiveness, alertness, sympathy, enthusiasm, punctuality, method, studiousness, wit, humor and a forgiving spirit—all, and more, characterized him as a man and minister. He spoke his convictions and sentiments on all proper occasions without undue thought of the consequences to himself, despising policy where principle might suffer. When questions arose upon which men divide, he never strode the fence, but lined up and stood resolutely in his place. He never whined or drew drafts upon the sympathies of his fellows; yet no one appreciated more thoroughly a kind word or well-meant favor. When the battle was joined, he marched to the front line, and where duty called led the charge. To passing events he gave thoughtful heed, to cry of the needy prompt and thorough response. He glowed and burned when treating a subject or doing a work of great importance. He attended to the business in hand at the time appointed, never missed Conference roll call but once, and was ever in his place to the close of the sessions. He studied the Book of Discipline, insisted on conformity to its requirements, and was ever the advocate of law and order. He had a good sized library of choice books, and found most congenial employment in his study. In the social circle he delighted friends and acquaintances with the occasional sly play of a most original wit and genial humor. He forgave others their trespasses fully, freely, readily. In a sermon preached one week before his death he said: "It was never any trouble for me to forgive."

As a Methodist he was rooted and grounded in the doctrines and polity of his church. He was quick to discern and drive with furious scourge all strange and erroneous teachings from her pulpits. All lovers of gospel truth within the bounds of the Radford District during the Conference year of 1890-91 were put under lasting obligations to him for the sound drubbing he gave antinomianism as preached in many places by a certain notorious evangelist of that region. Through all the years he grew in grace, knowledge of the truth, and power to defend it; but never so rapidly, perhaps, as during the last six.

I saw him last in an educational meeting held for the preachers of Cleveland District at Athens, Tenn., early in November. He seemed as a man refreshed and intent upon the accomplishment of a great work; but the darkness of night fell on his day at noon, and we who were counting on the help of his stout heart and strong hands are lonelier in our tasks while thoughts of our loss sometimes blind us with tears. The attack of sickness that culminated in his death came without warning. His physical sufferings were intense, but brief. One who with bleeding heart tended him in his last moments has said: "His patience was truly wonderful, beautiful to behold, and death never stole the life hue from a sweeter countenance. How noble he looked as he lay there in his manly vigor, without the slightest trace of any struggle. His last testimony was: "He doeth all things well."

R. G. WATERHOUSE.

JNO. R. CUNNINGHAM.

Jno. R. Cunningham was born in Sullivan county, Tenn., in 1844. He was reared in a Christian home. His father, Rev. O. F. Cunningham, was once a member of Holston Conference. He was converted and became a member of the Methodist Church in 1850, at the age of sixteen. He was licensed to preach and admitted on trial into the Holston Conference in 1875, becoming a member thereof in full connection in 1877. He did faithful service as a travelling preacher until 1887, when he was forced to give up the pastorate of Pikeville Circuit on account of failing health, his throat being so diseased as to render pulpit ministrations impossible. He then taught school for a year at Asbury Camp ground, in Wythe county, Va. After this, ambitious to support himself and family, he became a commercial traveller, thus spending the remainder of his life until the utter failure of his health in the summer of 1898 compelled him to desist from active labor. From this time, though resisting the fell destroyer, he had but little hope of ever recovering his health, and with great patience submitted to the will of his Master, he began to set his house in order for the final summons.

Though out of the regular pastorate, sustaining only a supernumerary relation to the Conference, his spirit groaned under the burden of bodily infirmities that denied him active participation in ministerial labor. His oft confessed supreme desire was to return to the pastorate and preach "the unsearchable riches of Christ." When he knew he would shortly stand at the end of his days, he said to the writer: "My faith is daily confirmed, my hope is stronger and the light of the eternal world grows brighter. Death does not frighten me. My chief regret is to leave my family. Let God's will be done." He bore his lingering illness and great suffering with Christian fortitude. Sustained by the grace that never faileth, he was cheerful to the end. Realizing that recovery was impossible he yet rejoiced feeling he was victor through the blood of the Lamb of God.

One who knew him well from his youth says of him: "He was not a great orator, not sublimely eloquent, but he was a man of good intellectual capacity, fair education and culture, and could he have lived in health and vigor he would have made his mark in the world as a minister and scholar, for he was a student and loved to study." He was high minded but sweet spirited; a devoted husband and father; loyal to the church; faithful to the trusts committed to him; honest, upright, generous. His last testimony, given after the singing of "'Tis so sweet to trust in Jesus," was "Yes, thou art with me to the end." His final farewell to his family and friends was to point upward and say: "Let us meet up there."

Early in the morning of the 15th of January, 1899, "God's finger touched him and he slept." Ere earth's sunrise had dispelled night's gloom, his immortal spirit left its mortal casket with its toil and faintness and pain, and returning unto God who gave it, it was sunrise—in Heaven. A wife, two daughters and one son, a local preacher, and a young man of fine character, survive him and mourn their loss.

T. J. ESKRIDGE.

MRS. CARROLL LONG.

Mrs. Nancy Sanders Long, widow of Rev. Carroll Long, was born in Wythe county, Va., January 21st, 1821. She was the daughter of George and Nancy Oury; was married to Rev. Carroll Long of the Holston Conference M. E. Church, South, August, 20th, 1851, and died June 7th, 1899, in her 79th year. This saintly woman was converted early in life and joined the Methodist Church in whose loved pale she lived, labored and died. She came to Tennessee just before the breaking out of the civil war, with her husband and small family. And during and after that unhappy strife, was the wise and faithful helpmeet of her honored husband, whose devotion and fidelity to his convictions of truth and right exposed him to insult and injury, which she shared with him and helped him to bear in the spirit of meekness of their common Lord, and to the praise of His glorious grace. Especially in the dark days that followed that war, days that fiercely threatened to destroy both husband and her church, she was a Deborah in counsel, courage and faith. Her husband did safely trust in her, and she did him good and not evil all the days of her life. To the poor and needy she stretched out her hands, and in her tongue was the law of kindness. Her children rise up now and call her blessed. Yes, and her neighbors too. Brother J. A. Burrow and I attended her funeral, at which a large number was present, and a most impressive part of the ceremony was in taking the testimony of her neighbors as to the life and labors of Sister Long among them. When the question was asked: How many of you have been members of her Sunday-school class? many stood up all through the congregation. Many of them gray headed, for she had been among them as a Sunday-school teacher for more than 40 years. And when all were asked to stand up whose lives had been made better by her life and prayers, a large part of the audience stood with faces bathed in tears. Precious testimony.

Brother Long had been dead 21 years. Her widowed life was peaceful and happy in the midst of her devoted and pious children, and full of faith and joy in the Holy Ghost. Who ever attended camp meeting at old Cane Creek and did not hear Sister Long shout all over the place, "Happy! Happy! Happy!" I see her now as she walked up and down the straw covered aisle, shouting "Happy! Happy! Happy!" Blessed saint, now happy forever. Amen. We buried her by the side of Brother Long at old Wesleyanna church, some eight miles southeast of Athens, in McMinn county, Tenn.

D. SULLINS.

MRS. DANIEL B. CARTER.

Mary Wilson Carter, daughter of John and Margaret Aston, was born at Rogersville, Tenn., January 29, 1820. The influences about her early life were that of an ideal Christian home. With such parentage and surroundings we would naturally expect in the child early developments in Christian character. In Mary's life these expectations were not disappointed, for at the age of 12 or 13, she consecrated her young and hopeful life to Christ, and was ever afterward found conforming her life to His teaching. She was educated at her native town by Mrs. Matilda Rogers and her long and useful life shows how well the foundation was laid. She was capable and studious, and made such rapid advancement in her intellectual training that at the age of 16 she began to teach, and much of her life was devoted to that noble calling. The many pupils trained by her for their life work prove how earnestly and faithfully she performed her work.

She was married to Rev. Daniel B. Carter of the Holston Conference, January 18, 1849, Rev. John Kelly performing the ceremony. She entered upon a wider and more difficult field of usefulness, as the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher. She made a model wife for an itinerant preacher. There was no duty so great, or situation so delicate, that she did not meet and discharge in a way to be helpful to her husband, and to honor the name of her Lord. In the home life of sister Carter perhaps the noblest attributes of her character were displayed in governing and giving direction to the lives of her own three children; one son, who died in childhood, and two daughters and two step-children, Dr. W. M. Carter and Mrs. Martha Speck. By her firm discipline and spotless example she impressed upon her family the high demands of our holy religion so that each one of them became a useful member of the church and an earnest servant of Christ. By her fidelity to duty and her loving administration of the home, she drew her children very close to her, and their confidence in her was unbounded. Her step-children, vieing with her own to do her honor unto the close of her earthly life. Her friends were numbered by her acquaintances. She was a welcome guest in every home because she always brought sunshine and cheer. She loved her church and was always in her place in the house of the Lord and was always ready to contribute her influence, her time, and her means to promote its enterprise. She rejoiced in its prosperity and mourned over its adversity. No one had a more jealous eye for the purity of the ministers and members of the church than she. She was never happier than when God's ministers sheltered under her roof, and fed at her table, and prayed at her family altar. We will miss her. Many of the members of the Holston Conference will join with me in a feeling of bereavement that we will never see her face or hear her gentle voice, giving words of encouragement, until we meet her in that better life that does not end at the grave. I think I have never known any one who has given to the world a better exhibition of the power of our holy religion than she. Her life was a living epistle of the power of the truth taught by our Lord. She approached the final conflict with a firm faith in God, and in holy triumph she passed to her rich reward above. While the community has lost one of its most honored members, and the church one of its best servants, and the children one of the best of mothers, we sorrow not without hope. We expect to meet her again in the home of the good above.

K. C. ATKINS.

MRS. JOHN ALLEY.

Mrs. E. J. Alley (nee Kirklin) was born April 10, 1827, and died January 7, 1899. She was married to Rev. John Alley September 27, 1848. She had been a great sufferer for twenty years or more—a long, hard battle for life—being drawn together by curvature of the spine and rheumatism, and had been totally blind for more than seven years. Through all these years of affliction she was patient and resigned. She joined the Methodist Church when a child, lived a consistent member of the same till removed by death. She was one of the oldest members of that large Church, the Church of her mother, and the home of her childhood. She insisted on her friend, Mrs. Wilson (some time before her death), preparing her burying clothes, to have them in readiness. She made inquiry of Mrs. Wilson a short time before her death, in the presence of some of the neighbors, if those clothes were ready, her burying clothes, and was answered, yes. This seemed to satisfy her. She was never very demonstrative on the subject of religion; but was very charitable and hospitable, and she talked a great deal during her last illness about religion and the heavenly home, and that it would not be long till she would be there to live forever. On being asked by her husband how she felt in regard to the future, she answered: "All right; no fears. I only regret that I have not been more useful, and have not done more for the

M. Carter and Mrs. Martha Speck. By her firm discipline and spotless example she impressed upon her family the high demands of our holy religion so that each one of them became a useful member of the church and an earnest servant of Christ. By her fidelity to duty and her loving administration of the home, she drew her children very close to her, and their confidence in her was unbounded. Her step-children, vying with her own to do her honor unto the close of her earthly life. Her friends were numbered by her acquaintances. She was a welcome guest in every home because she always brought sunshine and cheer. She loved her church and was always in her place in the house of the Lord and was always ready to contribute her influence, her time, and her means to promote its enterprise. She rejoiced in its prosperity and mourned over its adversity. No one had a more jealous eye for the purity of the ministers and members of the church than she. She was never happier than when God's ministers sheltered under her roof, and fed at her table, and prayed at her family altar. We will miss her. Many of the members of the Holston Conference will join with me in a feeling of bereavement that we will never see her face or hear her gentle voice, giving words of encouragement, until we meet her in that better life that does not end at the grave. I think I have never known any one who has given to the world a better exhibition of the power of our holy religion than she. Her life was a living epistle of the power of the truth taught by our Lord. She approached the final conflict with a firm faith in God, and in holy triumph she passed to her rich reward above. While the community has lost one of its most honored members, and the church one of its best servants, and the children one of the best of mothers, we sorrow not without hope. We expect to meet her again in the home of the good above.

MRS. JOHN ALLEY.

Mrs. E. J. Alley (nee Kirklin) was born April 10, 1827, and died January 7, 1899. She was married to Rev. John Alley September 27, 1848. She had been a great sufferer for twenty years or more—a long, hard battle for life—being drawn together by curvature of the spine and rheumatism, and had been totally blind for more than seven years. Through all these years of affliction she was patient and resigned. She joined the Methodist Church when a child, lived a consistent member of the same till removed by death. She was one of the oldest members of that large Church, the Church of her mother, and the home of her childhood. She insisted on her friend, Mrs. Wilson (some time before her death), preparing her burying clothes, to have them in readiness. She made inquiry of Mrs. Wilson a short time before her death, in the presence of some of the neighbors, if those clothes were ready, her burying clothes, and was answered, yes. This seemed to satisfy her. She was never very demonstrative on the subject of religion; but was very charitable and hospitable, and she talked a great deal during her last illness about religion and the heavenly home, and that it would not be long till she would be there to live forever. On being asked by her husband how she felt in regard to the future, she answered: "All right; no fears. I only regret that I have not been more useful, and have not done more for the poor and sick. If I had my life to live over again, I would be more devoted to Christ. I now can do nothing; only trust Him." Trust in the Saviour was her leading theme in her last days. She said she did not want much said, unless she had done more; did not want much ado over her remains. She always said she wanted the writer to conduct her funeral service, and wanted all that was done to be done at the burial. As I was unable to reach the burial, I am glad her pastor was there. She was a companion of my sisters, and a lifelong acquaintance of mine. Most of our families have met on the other shore. "Dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return," is written of the body, but not of the soul. May the blessing of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost sustain the husband, who has been a herald for Christ for more than fifty years. And may the good Spirit gently lead the two surviving children safely into the kingdom of heaven.

A. D. STEWART.

MRS. MARTHA J. PRICE.

This noble Christian woman was born in Washington county, Virginia, August 29, 1850; and, at her home in Glade Spring, Va., July 20, 1899, she closed her eyes on this world and went sweeping through the gates into the city of the blessed, "to behold the King in his beauty." Though her stay on earth was a little less than 49 years, there was crowded into her life as much of joy and sorrow as falls to the lot of most mortals. Possessed of a finely wrought organism, she was most susceptible, alike to ecstatic joys and excruciating suffering. She was the daughter of James and Eliza Crow, of Washington county, Va., and the heir of a clear, incisive intellect, a warm and passionate heart, a lithe and graceful form, and no ordinary degree of personal beauty. Naturally bright and attractive, she not only added those charms which culture gives, but was possessed of those rare and subtle graces which the religion of Christ only gives. She was in the highest and best sense, a sweet, wholesome and lovable woman.

When only about 11 years old, under the ministry of Rev. George Stewart and L. K. Haynes, at Rock Springs, she gave her young heart and life to the Master, and she never recalled the gift. She loved the Lord and His church and made many and great sacrifices for them. On the 22nd day of August, 1867, Rev. B. W. S. Bishop officiating, she was united in marriage to Dr. W. H. Price, who was then doing a large and lucrative practice of medicine in the neighborhood in which they were both brought up. Their union was blessed with six children, all of whom survive her, except the last born, who when an infant of a few days old, went to the arms of the Savior, who so tenderly invited such to come. She was an affectionate and devoted daughter, wife and mother. She honored her parents, loved and trusted her husband and with all the tenacity of a mother's heart, clung to her children till death relaxed her grasp. But has that grasp been broken? Does she love them less now than formerly?

Her throne of power was her home. The touch of her mother hand abides on her children. Her sons are strong, noble, manly. Her daughters are sweet, pure, cultured, and among the best women it has been my privilege to know. In life and all of its relations, Sister Price was faithful and in death she was gloriously triumphant. She retained all of her faculties to the last. In fact her intellect grew brighter as she neared the end, and her spiritual eyes seemed opening on visions of Heaven. Over and over, Sister Price repeated: "I am ready and want to go." Her husband and all her children were with her. She gave each of them her blessing and asked that they meet her in Heaven. To the husband she said: "I know you will come." At one time her husband observed that she was pointing upward and asked at what she was pointing. She replied: "I am pointing home—why, it is so bright I don't see how I could miss it." Dr. Price responded: "Trust in Jesus and He will not let you miss it." She replied: "No, no, I will go right in at the door." When the husband repeated a part of the hymn beginning, "Jesus Lover of my Soul," she exclaimed: "That is so sweet; repeat it again." And when he had begun it her feeble voice joined him in the quotation. A little later, her spirit left her stricken and broken home at Glade Spring, in full view of heaven.

After appropriate services in the Methodist Church at Glade Spring, conducted by her presiding elder, Rev. E. F. Kahle, assisted by Revs. L. K. Haynes, J. W. W. Shuler and J. R. Walker, all that was mortal of her was laid to rest in that lovely place, Cemetery Hill, at Emory and Henry College, to await the resurrection of the just.

GEO. D. FRENCH.

"Thou art gone to the grave! but we will not deplore thee,
Though sorrows and darkness encompass the tomb,
The Savior hath passed through its portals before thee,
And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.

"Thou art gone to the grave! we no longer behold thee,
Nor tread the rough paths of the world by thy side;
But the wide arms of mercy are spread to enfold thee,
And the sinners may hope, for the Sinless hath died.

"Thou art gone to the grave! and its mansion forsaking,
Perchance thy weak spirit in doubt lingered long;
But the sunshine of glory beamed bright on thy waking,
And the sound thou didst hear was the seraphim's song.

"Thou art gone to the grave! but we will not deplore thee,
Since God was thy ransom, thy guardian and guide;
He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee;
And death has no sting, since the Savior hath died."
